Budapest has recently become a frequent destination for students and young professionals from all around the world. It is no longer surprising to hear English, German, Italian, French or Dutch words down the streets in front of office buildings or in the downtown pubs. As there are several opportunities for foreign jobseekers, the chances are high to meet your former school-mates, friends, acquaintances in Budapest.

Are you looking for a place, where you can face new, exciting challenges and feel like home at the same time?

Budapest, the dynamic, youthful and beautiful city is waiting for you!

How and where can you earn money for living in Hungary?

Hungary and especially Budapest is known nowadays as the capital of the multinational companies and Business Centres. These companies are looking for candidates speaking English and another additional (mainly European) language. Most of these firms are located in the city centre offering attractive career opportunities and - compared to Hungarian standards - good salary as well. The social life is very active at these workplaces as the majority of the employees are young, open minded and very multi-cultural people but if you don't feel like having parties only with your co-workers, there are many intercompany events where everyone is welcome.

Can you imagine yourself living in a city what is offering so many possibilities within the working hours and even after that? Come and experience the Hungarian way of living!

Have you ever thought that once you will profit from your mother tongue?

Shared Service Centres/Business Service Centres in Hungary welcome candidates from all around Europe and maybe it's your mother language that they require for one of their positions! The most required languages are: German, French, Polish, Czech, Slovakian, Slovenian, Spanish, Portuguese and Russian. Feel the advantage of using your own language as one of them!

Be appreciated at abroad by using your national heritage!

There are lots of pubs and clubs all around Europe, but do you have any idea what a „ruin-pub“ could be?*

Let's talk not only about work now! If you already decided to come, work and live in Budapest, and you got your job and accommodation, the next step is to explore the night life and the pleasure & recreation opportunities. Budapest offers you so much fun! If you want to spend your time with local Hungarians or other foreigners, ruin pub is your place. If you prefer relaxing, you can get rid of the stress in one of our well-known spas, thermal baths or at the plage. If you need some cultural experience, the Palace of Arts can be your place (among others) where you can enjoy dance performances, world music, jazz and classical music, exhibitions, art performances during the whole year.

You think it's not enough... discover the various festivals! Hungary has become the country of festivals in the past few years; Sziget Festival being the most popular and well-known music, cultural and fun event in Europe. But we have more! There is more than 30 gastronomic, musical, cultural, folklore etc. festivals organised in Hungary every year, and so to decide which one to choose can be the hardest work.
